

Stephen Thomas-Dorin

6409 Simmons Ln • Clinton, MD 20735 • Phone: (240) 779-3007 • E-Mail: Stephen.thomasdorin@gmail.com

Education

Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh, PA B.S. of Computer Science, May 2020 Minor in Business and Game Design QPA: 3.07	2016-2020
Bishop McNamara High School	2014-2016
The Academy of Health Sciences @ PGCC	2012-2014

Languages: C, C# (for Unity 3D), Swift/Objective-C, NodeJS, HTML, CSS

Applications: Unity 3D, Photoshop, Illustrator, Xcode, Git/GitHub, Maya, Microsoft Azure

Experience

iOS Developer for Grytek and S-Labs (my dad's and my company respectively) June 2015- Present

- Developed five apps, including:
 - 2D game in Objective-C using SpriteKit Library
 - Restaurant app in Objective-C ("Trattoria Da Franco" on the App Store)
 - 3D artistic game in C# with Unity 5 ("Colorful Room" on the App Store)

A Wider Circle March 2015, March-April 2016

- A Wider Circle provides free furniture to families in need
- Carried furniture from donor vehicles to warehouse to client's vehicles
- 70 hours of volunteering time

National High School Game Academy @ Carnegie Mellon University June-August, 2015

- Spent six weeks on campus of CMU learning game development principles and techniques including Unity programming (C#), 2D art, 3D modeling, sound design, and game design
- Developed two complete games with two 5-person teams in 3 weeks
- Served as team producer for both projects

Howard University Pre-College for Engineering Systems (PCES) summer program June-July, 2014

- Studied electrical engineering and related aspect of calculus, physics, and chemistry for four weeks while staying on campus at Howard University
- Lead team of 6 to complete "Intelligent Load Control" project and project presentation
- Won award for best project presentation
- Earned $300

Accomplishments

• Microsoft Award at Tartan Hacks	2017
• Graduated Magna Cum Laude	2016
• Eagle Scout	2016
• Bishop McNamara High School Computer Science Department Award	2016
• Inducted to National Honor Society	2015
• Inducted to Mu Alpha Theta Math Honor Society	2015
• Peer Minister of Bishop McNamara High School (Spiritual Leadership program)	2015
• American Regions Mathematic League High Teams Honors in Division B national competition	2015
• Herndon Family Art Scholarship	2015